1

YOU'LL BE PROUD OF WHERE YOU WORK. UCP consistently ranks as one of Oregon's top non-profit employers, and we have a great reputation in the community.

2

YOUR WORK WILL BE MEANINGFUL AND IMPORTANT. Every day, you'll help people who experience disabilities live the life of their dreams!

3

YOU'LL BE ABLE TO FIND THE SCHEDULE THAT WORKS FOR YOU—whether that's part-time, full-time, days, overnights, weekends, or a flexible schedule.

4

YOU'LL BE ABLE TO LEARN AND GROW. You'll gain valuable experience in the fields of developmental disabilities, non-profits, healthcare, and social justice!

5

YOU CAN HAVE A LONG-TERM CAREER. We almost always promote from within. Also, we have a variety of departments doing very different activities—so when you're ready for that next challenge, there's a place for you!

6

YOU CAN TAKE THE TIME TO BUILD DEEP RELATIONSHIPS with the people we support.

7

YOU'LL LOVE YOUR CO-WORKERS. Our employees are passionate about social justice and doing the right thing. They're also a lot of fun!

8

YOU'LL LOVE OUR PAID TRAINING. Our training/shadowing process is thorough and interesting.

9

YOU'LL BE ABLE TO USE YOUR SKILLS AND TALENTS, even if they're not part of your job description. Love to take photographs? Love event planning or writing? We'd love your help on various special projects and committees.

10

YOU'LL LOVE OUR WORKPLACE CULTURE. It's casual, open, progressive, empowering, and fun.
